Eric Shoemaker is the newly-appointed executive chef at Alexander's, the restaurant at Timber Cove Inn (21780 Highway 1, Timber Cove). Chef Shoemaker's previous experience includes stints in the kitchens of the Petaluma Sheraton, the Cal-Expo Marriot in Sacramento and the Stanford Court Hotel in San Francisco.

The restaurant, which calls its cuisine "coastal Mediterranean," strives for as local a menu as possible, with grass-fed meats and poultry, sustainable fish and shellfish and produce from nearby farms and orchards.

The dining room has one of the most spectacular views north of the Golden Gate and the inn provides an intimate, cozy getaway, perfect in the fall and winter months.
