TIMBER COVE INN ON SCENIC SONOMA COAST COMPLETES RENOVATION/APPOINTS AWARD-WINNING CHEF

JENNER, Calif. -- Timber Cove Inn, www.timbercoveinn.com, perched on a majestic cliff along the ruggedly scenic Sonoma Coast, has just completed a $2.5 million renovation that includes new carpet, drapes, bedding, linens and furniture in all of the rooms. The lobby, bar and restaurant have also been refurbished, and an outdoor patio and fire pit have been added to overlook the Pacific Ocean. The idyllic Inn, located 14 miles north of Jenner where the Russian River meets the ocean and one hour drive west of Santa Rosa, features stunning views, a massive stone fireplace, and spa tubs and fireplaces in most rooms to create an atmosphere of total relaxation. The hotel was designed and built by San Francisco-area visionary Richard Clements. Most of the 50 guest rooms feature decks that overlook stunning ocean views. All have been refurbished to feature flat screen TV, robes, and new bed treatments.

Also new to the Inn is celebrated Chef Jon Mortimer, most recently executive chef and owner of Mortimer's/Franco Latino, whose frequent media appearances included a recent interview and culinary demonstration on The Today Show. Before joining Timber Cove Inn, his restaurants garnered numerous national and local awards.

Mortimer will head the kitchen of the Hotel's restaurant, Alexander's at Timber Cove, which features an innovative menu of sumptuous Tuscan cuisine. The Fall 2008 Tasting Menu includes culinary delights along the lines of the Mushroom Cappuccino, with local wild mushrooms, truffled milk foam and fresh nutmeg, and the Hazelnut crusted pork with pinot noir reduction.

The public is invited to watch for the debut of Timber Cove Inn's grand opening packages that will be featured at www.timbercoverinn.com - as well as special event dinners, including wine pairings.

Nearby, art lovers will be inspired by Benjamin Bufano's awesome obelisk sculpture titled "Peace." The renowned Italian-American sculptor also created the iconic statue of St. Francis for the city of San Francisco.

Reservations at Timber Cove Inn can be booked online at www.timbercoveinn.com or by calling Toll Free: 800-987-8319 or 707-847-3231.
